A large, dotted lowercase letter 'j' is shown on a set of three horizontal lines: a top red dashed line, a middle solid black line, and a bottom red dashed line. The letter 'j' starts with a dot above the top line, goes down to touch the middle line, curves to the left, and then goes down to touch the bottom line.
